

The Ashland Daily Press is looking for an outgoing, community-connected person to join our team as a Multi-Media Account Executive. The Ashland Daily Press has been around for over 100 years, and we are still going strong! Our diverse array of products reaches nearly 70,000 people every week including print, digital and social media. If you want to take the next step in your career, and want to control what you make, then I want to talk to you!

What will you be doing?

Educate and sell multimedia products and services to an established business client base and develop new customers. Conduct customer needs analysis and create presentations and proposals to provide clients with customized solutions. Bottom line, we are here to help our customers grow their business. Our products and services are diverse and expand far beyond our traditional print publication including Geo-Targeting, Social Media, Email Marketing, Re-Targeting, and so much more.

Salary plus commission/bonus + great benefits! For more information, please contact Jeff Robischon, General Manager at jrobischon@ashlanddailypress.net.
